24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Lord once again asked His disciples of who the people say He is. There are so many answers given like John the Baptist, Elijah and other prophets. But when Jesus asked them of who is to them. Peter answered that He is the Messiah, the Son of the living God.

This answer of Saint Peter revealed the true and sincere type of friendship he had with Jesus. He knew Him better than the people. For the people, Jesus is a great Teacher, Son of David, miracle worker, one of the prophets and the Holy One of God.

How about if Jesus asks the same question today, what will be our answer? Maybe we will answer like this: for the Muslim, He is one of the great prophets; for the born-again Christians, He is their personal Lord and Savior and many more. How about you?
