The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 “Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!”

Bartimaeus was blind. Many people had no pity on him, but instead scolded him to keep quiet and out of sight. Jesus had pity on Bartimaeus and healed him.

A leper was treated without pity by the masses. He had to keep out of the way, calling out, “Unclean, unclean!” Jesus saw him, was “moved with pity,” touched him, and healed him.

A vast crowd was hungry for the Word of God. Jesus “pitied them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them at great length”. Then He fed them with a miraculous multiplication of loaves and fish.

What about you? Are you sick, hungry, out of a job, without sufficient housing or money, rejected, forgotten, hurting, unloved, or persecuted? Are you “in tears”? Cry out with Bartimaeus: “Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!” Jesus is the same today as He was in the Gospels. He is full of pity, mercy, and compassion for you. You may be in a desert now (Ps 126:4), but Jesus can turn even the driest desert into a place of refreshment and rejoicing (Ps 126:1-6; Jer 31:9).

Jesus is looking at you, full of pity and love. He asks you: “What do you want Me to do for you?” Jump up and come to Jesus. Ask Him to heal you and let you see Him as your Lord.
