4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It’s common for Scripture to talk about having faith without seeing. We talk about “blind faith” and the leap of faith. “Faith is confident assurance concerning what we hope for, and conviction about things we do not see” (Heb 11:1). “We walk by faith, not by sight” (2 Cor 5:7). The centurion had so much faith in Jesus’ word of command that he didn’t need to see Jesus give the order to heal his servant (Lk 7:8, 10).

Scripture also talks about having hope without seeing. “Hope is not hope if its object is seen; how is it possible for one to hope for what he sees? And hoping for what we cannot see means awaiting it with patient endurance” (Rm 8:24-25). Abraham hoped “against hope” (Rm 4:18), though he could not see how God would give him a great inheritance (Heb 11:8ff).

We also have examples in Scripture of love without seeing or “blind love”: the “patient” (1 Cor 13:4) love of a parent for a wayward child (Lk 15:13, 20), the enduring, faithful love of Mary Magdalene for the dead and buried Jesus (Jn 20:15), and God’s love for us while we were still sinners (Rm 5:8).

Are you called to pour out your heart in unseeing, unrequited love? Ask Jesus to pour out His love in your heart (Rm 5:5). Blind love is greater than blind faith and blind hope (1 Cor 13:13). There is no limit to the power of your unrequited love to endure (1 Cor 13:7).

2022 Bishop's Appeal

“A Bridge Home” is the theme of this year’s Appeal, formerly called the Annual Catholic Appeal, and it highlights hope, renewal and evangelization in our Diocese.

While I realize that everyone’s financial situation is different, I truly believe that contributing to this vital effort is one sacrifice that is most worthy of support and within the financial capability of all our parishioners.

Please keep in mind that while this is our Parish and our Spiritual home, we are all part of a larger Church. If we act together as members of one family united in Christ's love, we can do great things. I doing so, I trust we will have done our part as a parish family in the diocese and together, we will be successful.

Message from Catholic Cemeteries:

Please note ALL Christmas decorations will be removed from the cemeteries in the diocese beginning February 1 through February 15.
