Blessing of Throats

On the occasion of the Feast of St. Blaise, there will be Blessing of Throats after every Mass this weekend, February 5-6, 2022.

February 3: Feast of St. Blaise

Physician. Bishop of Sebaste, Armenia. Lived in a cave on Mount Argeus. Healer of men and animals; according to legend, sick animals would come to him on their own for help, but would never disturb him at prayer. Agricola, governor of Cappadocia, came to Sebaste to persecute Christians. His huntsmen went into the forests of Argeus to find wild animals for the arena games, and found many waiting outside Blaise's cave. Discovered in prayer, Blaise was arrested, and Agricola tried to get him to recant his faith. While in prison, Blaise ministered to and healed fellow prisoners, including saving a child who was choking on a fish bone; this led to the blessing of throats on Blaise's feast day.

Thrown into a lake to drown, Blaise stood on the surface and invited his persecutors to walk out and prove the power of their gods; they drowned. When he returned to land, he was martyred by being beaten, his flesh torn with wool combs (which led to his association with and patronage of those involved in the wool trade), and then beheading.

Blaise has been extremely popular for centuries in both the Eastern and Western Churches. In 1222 the Council of Oxford prohibited servile labor in England on his feast. He is one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers Born Armenian Died flesh torn by iron wool-combs, then beheaded c.316

2022 Bishop’s Appeal

“A Bridge Home” is the theme of this year’s Appeal, formerly called the Annual Catholic Appeal, and it highlights hope, renewal and evangelization in our Diocese.

While I realize that everyone’s financial situation is different, I truly believe that contributing to this vital effort is one sacrifice that is most worthy of support and within the financial capability of all our parishioners.

Please keep in mind that while this is our Parish and our Spiritual home, we are all part of a larger Church. If we act together as members of one family united in Christ's love, we can do great things. I doing so, I trust we will have done our part as a parish family in the diocese and together, we will be successful. For more details, please visit our website www.sacredheartgreenwich.org
